

THE SOUTH AFRICAN SCHOOL OF PARALEGAL STUDIES 2018

THE SOUTH AFRICAN SCHOOL OF PARALEGAL STUDIES was established in 1992 to provide specialized training for legal support staff of professional practices, financial institutions, corporations and those wanting to embark upon a legal career.

Certain courses conducted by the School and its sister entity THE SOUTH AFRICAN INSTITUTE OF LEGAL TRAINING also appeal to the self-employed businessperson or owners/managers of small to medium companies.

What is a Paralegal?

Paralegals or Legal Assistants are people who are able to work in a legal environment. Paralegals have a sound basic knowledge of the legal principles relevant to the field in which they are working and as a result are able to work independently to perform legal tasks. Although not qualified to represent clients, Paralegals perform various important legal tasks and other administrative duties in the office. In an attorney's practice, for example, the Paralegal relieves the workload of the attorney by performing much of the routine legal work or research.

Career Opportunities

Apart from the obvious position of working as a legal assistant in a legal practice, numerous employment opportunities exist for Paralegals. A perusal of the career section of the local newspaper will frequently show that the market place is looking for the services of Paralegals in many areas. The skills of a Paralegal will be an asset in any legal environment, both in the public and private sector: Legal practitioners, Community centres and Advice offices, Banks, Insurance Companies, Magistrates, Estate Agents and Civil Service Departments.

Our Mission: "Training paralegals to play a vital role in the South African legal system."

OVERVIEW OF COURSES

Paralegals or legal assistants are persons with legal skills who are employed or wish to be employed by a lawyer, law office, governmental agency, or other entity in a capacity or function which involves the performance of legal work.

SENIOR PARALEGAL COURSE (part-time) COMMERCIAL LAW COURSE (part-time)

The Senior Paralegal or Commercial Law course is a non-NQF Provider Programme, which is ideal for people already working in an environment where legal skills are advantageous or who want to enter the legal field and want to achieve a broad legal background. The subjects covered in the courses are: Criminal Law & Procedure, Civil Litigation, Property Law & Conveyancing, Business Law, Debt Collecting and Wills & Estates. Each short course runs for eight weeks from 18h00 to 20h00, once a week. Exams will be written two weeks after the last lecture. The South African School of Paralegal Studies Short Course non-NQF completion certificates are handed to those who pass. The six short courses can be completed in between twelve and twenty four months. The South African School of Paralegal Studies Senior Paralegal or Commercial Law Course non-NQF completion certificate reflects a record of all six short courses successfully completed. The six short courses comprising the Senior Paralegal or Commercial Law Course must have been completed within a maximum period of four years in order to ensure the currency of the learning reflected therein.

SHORT COURSES (part-time)

The six Short Courses are non-NQF Provider Programmes, which are aimed at students who want to gain legal knowledge in individual legal subjects. There are six courses to choose from, namely Criminal Law & Procedure, Civil Litigation, Property Law & Conveyancing, Business Law, Debt Collecting and Wills & Estates. All subjects are offered once a year - two courses per term in the first and second term and one course per term in the third and fourth term. Each course runs for eight weeks from 18h00 to 20h00, once a week. Exams will be written two weeks after the last lecture. The South African School of Paralegal Studies Short Course non-NQF completion certificates are handed to those who pass.

Entry requirement:

- South African matric, or
- tertiary level learning through life experience for persons 23 years or older.

THE SOUTH AFRICAN SCHOOL OF PARALEGAL STUDIES – PROVIDER PROGRAMMES

What is a Provider Programme?

Provider Programmes are usually designed to address specific education, training and development needs, such as courses for self-enrichment, continuous professional development, self-employment, or orientation to a specific career. It is not and does not lead to a formal credit-bearing national qualification registered on the NQF.

The Senior Paralegal/Commercial Law Course and the six Short Courses have been developed by The South African School of Paralegal Studies. Although these courses are not an accredited NQF qualification, our courses have been developed specifically for the specialized training of paralegal and legal support staff in professional practices, financial institutions, corporations and those wanting to embark upon a paralegal career.

The South African School of Paralegal Studies is a leading Private Provider of Paralegal training and has been recognized by individuals, corporations and civil service departments as a reputable training provider with consistently high standards for over 20 years. Our short courses enjoy a market-related credibility and are carefully designed to meet specific training needs within the paralegal field.
